Certificate in Computer Systems Technician

Certificate in Computer Systems Technician

Computer Systems Technician monitors the operations of an organization's computer network, hardware, software, and operating systems. They monitor system performance and troubleshoot issues to provide clients with uninterrupted access and services. Technicians help the IT team in the operational services of software and PC hardware. Individuals also ensure that computer hardware, software, and related technologies are operating properly.