

A certificate is the lowest level of all degree types, and is most commonly achieved as a means of career preparation. Certificates are often granted for very concentrated areas of study.

The Electrical program is designed to integrate shop-based and off-site learning experiences including the school-sponsored house construction project. Students will master wiring methods (commercial and residential), blueprint reading, electrical code, and operating principles of motors, transformers and controlling circuits.